Dear Hiring Team at Maillefer,

With over 15 years of experience in business development and a strong background in project management, I am excited to apply for the Sales Manager position at Maillefer. My expertise in driving revenue growth and building long-term customer relationships aligns perfectly with your needs for this role.

I possess a proven track record in achieving sales targets, conducting market analysis, and developing data-driven strategies. My strong organizational and communication skills enable me to effectively engage stakeholders and adapt to diverse environments.

In my previous roles, I successfully managed and expanded customer bases while identifying new leads, resulting in significant revenue increases. My ability to collaborate with cross-functional teams and my fluency in English, French, and Spanish have been key to my success in international sales.

I am available for an interview at your earliest convenience and am willing to travel extensively as required for the role. I look forward to the opportunity to contribute to Maillefer's continued success.

Kind regards
